AUTHOR ²⁰₁₆ DAY

OCTOBER 8, 2016

CONNECTING INDIE BOOKS,
LIBRARIES AND READERS

Calling All LOCAL WRITERS!

Join us on October 8, 2016 as libraries across North America and their local writing communities come together for the first annual Indie Author Day.

What is INDIE AUTHOR DAY?

During Indie Author Day, libraries from all over will be hosting unique events centered around indie writing and publishing, including information on how to get your self-published ebook into the library catalog. At 2 pm Eastern, all participating libraries will come together for an hour-long digital Q&A featuring writers, agents and other industry leaders. Writers will learn valuable information while meeting other members of their local literary community.
